

Domain 3: Education and Lifelong Learning
Maintains and improves currency of knowledge, skills and new evidence for audiological practice
Competency	Sub-competency
3.1 Ensures ongoing capability for audiological practice and maintains currency of professional knowledge and performance to provide optimal care	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Identifies one's own professional strengths and areas for development through self-reflection, review of performance and feedback ii. Pursues continuing education to maintain and enhance knowledge, and clinical and decision-making skills iii. Understands the principles and applications of scientific enquiry, including the value of research to critical evaluation of practice iv. Uses a range of learning activities such as literature review, continuing education and mentorship to fulfil learning need. v. Maintains knowledge of relevant resources and technologies for audiological practice vi. Develops and maintains digital literacy for audiological practice
3.2 Contributes to the knowledge base of Audiology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Critically appraises or participates in research relevant to Audiology to contribute to the knowledge base ii. Adapts practice in line with new evidence and with policies and procedures of the workplace
3.3 Supports others learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Provides clinical education and/or supervision for audiologists, audiometrists and support personnel ii. Maintains knowledge of formal and informal networks for professional development and support iii. Identifies need for audiology-related information amongst others (ie. professionals, client, community) and ensures that it is accessible to facilitate audience comprehension