

At Triton Hearing, we want you to thrive — personally, professionally. When you join us, you become part of a team where you feel like you can belong, continue to grow, and make a real difference for the people you support.

As part of Sonova, you'll have the backing of a global leader in hearing care, while enjoying the close-knit, people-first culture we're known for here in Aotearoa New Zealand. Our teams care deeply about their work, value fresh thinking, and bring their whole selves to what they do — and that's something we truly celebrate.

Whether you already live in New Zealand or are considering a move from overseas, Triton Hearing offers a place where you can build a meaningful, rewarding career. If you're looking for work that feels purposeful and uplifting — for you and for your clients — we'd love to welcome you.
