Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora is firmly grounded in the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and is dedicated to serving all New Zealanders. Through integration and collaboration, we're building a health system underpinned by partnership, equity, sustainability, whānau-centred care, and excellence.

About the role

You will be joining a dedicated and supportive team focused on providing a high quality audiological service to our community. We maintain close working relationships with other health professionals including our ENT consultants, Advisors on Deaf Children and our Newborn Hearing Screeners. This is a fixed-term Advanced Audiologist position with clinical responsibility for complex paediatric assessments and habilitation.

About the Team/Service/Location

Our Audiology team is comprised of Audiologists, audiology assistants and Kaiāwhina, supported by a professional leader.

We have a strong reputation for innovation and excellent clinical practice, and value discussion and collaboration to provide the best quality care for our community.

About you

The role is suited to someone with specialist clinical knowledge with an ability to work with complex clients and manage their own clinical case load. This role will also have responsibility for providing clinical leadership within the team which assists in developing the clinical capability of others and service innovation and development. NZAS membership is essential and paediatric certification in at least one area of practice is preferred.

Working at Health New Zealand

Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora is 'the weaving of wellness'. We're dedicated to ensuring excellent healthcare for the people of Aotearoa/New Zealand.

Our people are at the heart of everything we do. Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora are committed to being good employers and honouring our equal employment opportunity obligations. We embrace diversity and welcome application from all people, including all gender identities, ages, ethnicities, sexual orientations, and disability.

A workforce that is diverse and inclusive means that we are better positioned to understand and service our community. We are pro-equity health organisation, with a particular focus on Māori, Pacific peoples, and the disability community.
